Westover, located along the busy US HWY 280 corridor, is approximately 20 miles southeast of Birmingham. A growing community with extensive plans for (PUD) Planned Unit Development projects, Westover has tremendous growth potential - from scenic wooded hills for new neighborhoods to commercial development potential along Hwy 280. Pine Mountain Preserve, currently under construction, offers large lots for farmhouse style homes in a private community setting complete with hiking trails and communal recreation sites. Westover is also home to Camelot Manor, a popular wedding venue, and ServPro's regional training center, both of which generate visitor traffic.
